Cotton Gin Burned.

Lawton, Ok., Dec. 12.—The cotton gin of Cash & Young, located at Junction, was burned. Most of the cotton on hand was saved and the loss was just the loss of the plant and buildings, which aggregated in value about $5,000. Small insurance was carried.

To the Citizens of Ardmore.

The Territorial Teachers' Association will hold its third session in the city of Ardmore, December, 27, 28 and 29.

This will be by far the largest body of educators that has ever met in the territory. It is desired by the Ardmore school board and superintendent that from entertainment be given by the Ardmore citizens to the visiting teachers, principals and superintendents from all towns in the territory.

All parties living in Ardmore who can do so are requested to aid in entertaining the visitors. Prof. Buck is chairman of the committee on entertainment. All parties who can take one or more teachers for entertainment for two days please report the same to Prof. Buck or to any Ardmore teacher.

Those who cannot give room in their homes may feel like contributing something in a cash way to pay for entertainment at the hotels. All such may hand their contribution to C. L. Anderson at the First National bank.

A most excellent program is being prepared for the occasion. Ardmore talent will furnish excellent music and other numbers for the daily sessions.

A special and pressing invitation is extended to all citizens of Ardmore to be present at the sessions.

W. H. BUCK.

Christmas Call.

The Benevolent Society requests that the good people of the different wards will get the names of all the poor families in their respective wards and report them either to the Benevolent Society or to the captain of the Salvation Army. The Benevolent Society and the Salvation Army will give the poor of Ardmore a free dinner Christmas day and we wish to get the names of as many of those who are not able to furnish dinner for themselves as possible. It is impossible for us to get all of their names, unless the people living in the different wards will report to us, as a great many of the poor people do not take the papers and therefore will not see this notice. Any assistance the people will render us in this hearty undertaking will be appreciated by us. We need both groceries and money. Will you kindly help us out in this act of charity and Christmas good-will toward our fellow man? We will have so much happiness and good then for ourselves Christmas. Can we not divide with those who are less fortunate than we are?

The Benevolent Society also wishes to thank the public for the generous donation at the opera house Thanksgiving day, as well as the ministers for their words of encouragement and commendation.

The Society wishes especially to thank the Salvation Army for their kindness in keeping our little orphan boy for four weeks, while we were making arrangements to send him to Buckner's Orphan's Home at Dallas, Texas. Part of the money we had on hand was used for this purpose. We have spent several hundred dollars the past year for food, fuel, clothes, railroad fare and nursing. We thank the public for their assistance in all our undertakings. We send to all our Christmas greetings and with hearts made humble and penitent, by coming in contact with suffering sin and want. We shall, after our Christmas work is over, take up our work anew, more determined and more willing than ever to work for the Master, by helping "these little ones," for we know "that in as much as we do it unto one of the least of these, we do it unto Him." There will be many dear children in Ardmore Christmas, whose only chance of happiness lies in what we will do for them. Then, dear friends, let us not forget them, lest having clothed and fed ourselves, we selfishly shut the door on the dear Christ child, who comes today, as he came two thousand years ago, knocking at the door of our hearts for admission. Shall we shut the door or open it wide, with love's own gifts, to the suffering and neglected? All who will help please send to any member of the Benevolent Society or to the Salvation Army. We are co-operating for mutual help and benefits. Very sincerely,
BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.
